SCORES CHURCH MEMBERS FOR AIDING BOOTLEGGERS

"YOU HELPED TO GET HIM IN JAIL, WHY DON'T YOU GET HIM OUT? YOU'RE AS GUILTY AS HE IS."

UGHT TO GO ON THEIR BOND

Rev. Wolfe of Shawnee Visits the Meeting and Makes a Good Talk to Christian People to Awake to the Needs of the Hour.

"What's the use for preachers to preach and Christians to pray against bootlegging when we've got a lot of church members here buying whiskey from the bootleggers?"

Evangelist Sid Williams opened his sermon last night by commending the local pastors as earnest, honest men, but said that unless they received a more nearly unanimous support from the church members of the city there would never be a revival. He opened up his batteries and shot some big guns into the ranks of the church people and good citizens of the city for making it possible for bootleggers to remain in business here by patronizing them.

"When the bootlegger gets caught and put in jail why don't you good people go on his bond. You got him in why don't you play fair and get him out?"

And he had some other things to say to church members also about social frivolities and that sort of thing that tend only to keep people out of the church instead of living right and by their example making other people want to come in. And the preacher is not of the long-faced variety, either. He is a happy soul himself and believes in people being happy and having a good time in a right sort of way.

Rev. Wolfe of Shawnee, was present and Rev. Williams called on him for a short talk. Rev. Wolfe rose splendidly to the occasion and delivered a ten minutes talk to Christian people driving home many excellent points though in a few words. He said that one's self is one's own worst enemy and a constant fight must be waged. Let a man deny himself if he would follow Christ. "There will be all the stars in your crown that your life merits," he said. "Your life is worth just exactly what it is valued at by God and according to God's standard of measurement, not by your own standard."

He made a hard hit at frivolous fashions and scored a point against the wearing of "rats" by the ladies. He said he couldn't see how they managed to hide so many rats in so little hair. He stroked his own long, waving locks and said, "I've got a lot of hair on my head, too, but it's not somebody else's hair."

He believes in an all-consuming hell and declared that the matter of a real revival of religion was dependent solely upon the church people of Ada.

Rev. Williams against resumed charge and took as his subject: "Three Excepts of the Bible."

The first is, "Except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish."—in or out of the church. Repentance is to turn away from sin because of the evil in sin, not merely because you have been caught nor for fear of the law. The basic sin is unbelief, for unbelief is to make God a liar. All sin rests upon this basic sin.

"Except ye be born again ye cannot enter the kingdom of heaven." Birth is a passing from one state to another. Man is born to sin. Unless he passes from the state of sin to the state of forgiveness he cannot be forgiven. Acceptance of Christ is to pass from under the rule of the world to the rule of God. The passing from the one to the other is being "born again."

The preacher declared vehemently that the Jews are no more the people of God. That the Jew must as an individual obey Christ just as any other individual. The people of God are those who have been born again, as individuals, passing from the state of sin to the state of forgiveness.

"Except ye become converted as a little child ye shall in no wise enter the kingdom of heaven." Unless we are willing to submit our wills to God as the child submits its will to the parents we cannot be citizens of the kingdom.

He closed with a powerful exhortation and several asked for prayers. When about fifteen parents arose in response to the invitation for all who had children for whom they desired prayers the preacher sounded a warning to parents that they shall properly train their children. Too few parents are asking for prayers for their children or even praying for them themselves, or talking to them about religion or taking them to the Sunday school and church. The street is claiming too many boys and girls.

He told of the lynching of Steve Renfrow in Livingston, Alabama, and said that though it occurred eighteen years ago there had not been a revival of religion there since. He spoke of sudden death coming to men often and cited numerous instances where men had brushed aside all appeals to turn or had indulged in some great crime and had met sudden death. He told of an incident where one night he had preached in this same way and a man on the outside had said: "Listen to that old fool trying to scare us." And in two weeks that man was killed by a stray bullet fired in a bank robbery.

"This is not a question of death but of life," he declared.

Tomorrow's Services.

Tomorrow there will be the usual morning service. There will be service at all the churches at the same hour, but in the evening most services will be dismissed in favor of the revival. The meeting is being conducted along very broad lines and people are simply being called on to turn from sin and ally themselves with the people of God, uniting with whatever local church they prefer.

Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be a men's meeting and President Briles of the Normal will address the people. A great audience is expected.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING FOR THE HOMER DISTRICT

Citizens of the District Are Today Voting Bond Issue for This Grand Improvement.

The people of school district No. 18 this county, Homer School, are very much enthused over the turn of school affairs in that district.

About two months ago the trustees employed J. O. McMinn, a teacher of long experience and proven ability to teach a three months term. Today they are holding a bond election for the purpose of erecting a new school building which will be commensurate with the increasing interest in education affairs in that section.

Not only did their enthusiasm, thus awakened lead to this advanced step, but only through lack of legal sanction, would have established a precedent for other districts. In the form of effecting a teacher's cottage—a matter of much concern to that class of teachers who are devoting their lives to this profession.

It is to be regretted that they could not find a legal sanction to this move. However, there seems to be a probability that they will yet attain their object by converting the present school room into a cottage. The people are to be congratulated for their educational spirits, and their advancement in this respect will doubtless serve as an object lesson as well as a stimulus to the many rural districts throughout this state which need to be aroused on this important subject.

Sapulpa Bootleggers.

Sapulpa, Okla., Aug. 28.—Bootleggers are being arrested by wholesale by the sheriff and his deputies as a result of indictments returned by the recent grand jury.

Many of the prominent liquor sellers have fled the city, some are under bonds in sums ranging from $1,000 to $7,000, and some who are unable to give bond are in jail.

The grand jury's probing revealed it is said, persons not generally suspected of being guilty of violating the law in any way engaged in the sale of whisky, and the wholesale arrests have created a sensation.

The freedom with which the bootleggers have operated in this city and county caused suspicion to attach to the offices of prominent county officials, including the county attorney and the former sheriff, who resigned when the investigation began.

Editor Takes Bride.

Konawa Chief-Leader—Wm. H. Nation, for the past year associated in the management of the Chief-Leader, and Miss Lucile Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Arnold of this city, were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. Willie Kendall of the M. E. church officiating.

The happy newly weds departed Tuesday for Anna, Ohio, the former home of Mr. Nation, and where his parents now reside.

A Progressive Farmer.

Konawa Chief-Leader—J. E. Fidler, an enterprising and industrious farmer, living three miles east of town has a canning factory on his farm, and during the summer months employs his leisure time in canning his own and his neighbors' surplus fruits, vegetables, etc.

Last year he canned more than 4,000 cans of peaches, tomatoes, corn, etc., which he readily disposed of on the local market.

It need hardly be said that such institutions ought to have the unqualified support of the entire community.

Taylor Nominates Culbertson.

Montgomery, Mo., Aug. 28.—Senator Bob Taylor of Tennessee nominated a democratic candidate for president here today. He named the senator from Texas, Charles A. Culbertson, on a tariff for revenue only and other so-called sound democratic principles.

He said Culbertson would be strong enough in the East and would have the solid south back of him. From his viewpoint, he could see the republican party run asunder on the tariff, especially since he had read that President Taft was going to tour the Middle West and defend the new tariff and pay his respects to the republican insurgents.

Some more weed cutting would

"Why in hell should I notice Fowler?" asked Speaker Cannon when presented with Mr. Fowler's scorching denunciation of the speaker and his tyrannic methods. Well, Uncle Joe, nobody asked you to wait till then, we'd prefer that you do it now.

In a prayer Thursday night Evangelist Sid Williams made reference to another occasion and place where he had conducted a protracted meeting and found the people cold and unresponsive, the spirit of the community difficult to penetrate by the spirit of the Master, and that at that place there had occurred previous to that meeting an incident similar to an incident that occurred in Ada recently, and he prayed fervently that these things would not bar the spirit of God from coming and saving this community. Previous to this prayer the evangelist had insisted that the individual does as he wills and that without he wills he will not and cannot serve God. The will of the individual makes up the will of the community. We believe that the will of this community still inclines toward righteousness.

OKLAHOMA SITTINGS.

The exceeding heat of the summer just closing has started agitation in dozens of the smaller towns for local ice plants. Next summer will doubtless be quite cool.

The Wapanucka Press says that Gov. Haskell and other men may cuss a little and yet be a thousand times better morally and in every way than a lot of sanctified hypocrites who profess to be what they are not.

Ardmore, Ok., Aug. 26.—The executive committee of the State Confederate Home is here today to select a site for the home. Ardmore was chosen several weeks ago, but the site for the home has not been selected.

Sheriff Lafors yesterday shipped out a consignment of sixty-two barrels of beer, two barrels of whiskey and thirty cases of whisky to the state dispensary at Guthrie as Lawton's quota to the amount of Oklahoma confiscated booze.

Tishomingo Capital—Judge R. M.
Rainey will sit in the district court
during the special term of one week which begins September 6th. It is probable that Judge West may be here next Saturday to hear a contempt case growing out of an injunction matter.

Some people who need religion:
The preacher who is chasing a higher salary, the man who leaves his horse to stand for hours in the hot broiling sun without water, the woman who spends her time gossiping about her neighbors and the man who keeps a worthless cur dog and is too poor to take his home paper for his children.

The Coal county bond election resulted in the bonds for roads and bridges and for county jail carrying, the former by large majority, while the bonds for a court house were lost by a majority of two. The farmers and all business men want roads, there must be a place to keep the wicked folks, but as for Justice she is blind anyway and can live in any old kind of a house.

County Treasurers to Meet.

Guthrie, Ok., Aug. 28.—The annual convention of the County Treasurers' Association of Oklahoma City Friday and Saturday, Sept. 10 and 11, when it is anticipated that the Treasurers of every county in the state will be present and matters of importance will be discussed.

The Gwin Family Away.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gwin with baby Edward Jr., will depart tomorrow for the east for a few weeks recreation and visit. The identity of this popular Ada family will more principally include in point of duration of "stop over," the home of Mr.
Gwin's parents at McKensie, Tenn., where the lad grew up and was made to become a pretty fair citizen.

State Charters.

Guthrie, Ok., Aug. 28.—The Westville Electric Light and Power Company received a state charter today. Its capital stock is $10,000.

Hobart Gas and Fuel Company amended its charter, increasing the capital stock from $10,000 to $100,- 000.

The Catesby Methodist church of Catesby, Ellis county, changed its name to the Newton Memorial church of Catesby.

The Breece Hill Mining and Development Company of Guthrie, Ok., and Leadville, Colo. decreased its capital stock from $1,000,000 to $500,- 000.

Walrath and Sherwood Lumber Co.
of Omaha, Nev., and Culligan & Co.
of Chicago, Ill., have named Gustave
Erickson of Guthrie as state agent.

Mexican Fairy Tales.

City of Mexico, Aug. 28.—The Society of the American Colony, representing some ten thousand Americans living in the City of Mexico and vicinity, adopted resolutions today cen-suring the wild stories sent out by special correspondents along the Mexican-American border which assumed to picture conditions and relate happenings occurring within this republic.

The resolutions also denounced anti-American and revolution stories as not warranted by facts, stating that no anti-American riots had occurred anywhere and that the central government was too strong to make any talk of a revolution worthy of credence.

Who Is Jim Lavinsky?

Manager Buck Wall of the Texas Department Store was on duty this morning and when asked by the News man about this Jim Lavinsky who failed in St. Louis and enabled Mr.
Wall to get his $60,000 of goods at something like a give-away price, he said:

"We just took Lavinsky in an automobile out on the Eads bridge and threw him into the Mississippi river.
Then we took all his goods and shipped them to Ada. We've got a bunch of his shoes out there in front now selling at 98 cents a pair. Look at the sign.

"The reason that some of these people (who have been asking about who Lavinsky is) can't find him is that the fishes have done et him up."

Tariff Sham Battle.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 28.—Describing the recent tariff fight as a sham battle and declaring that in the struggle to come the principle of protection must be attacked, W. J. Bryan says in the Commoner today:

"The time is past for sham battles on the tariff question. The only victory we have won on the tariff in recent years was the victory of 1892, when we attacked the principles of protection. No real fight can be made until a distinct line is drawn between the opposing forces.

"The progressive republicans can not make a fight against the Aldrich element, because both factions in the republican party claim to be pro-tectionists. It is only a question of degrees with no way of defining the issue. So with those who shy at a tariff for revenue only."

"Medicated Garbage."

Washington, Aug. 28.—Dr. Wiley lost in his fight against the use of benzoate of soda as a food preservative at the Denver pure food convention. Foods so preserved were referred to in the controversy as "medicated garbage." The decision of the convention was that benzoate of soda is all right as a preservative. Dr.
Wiley contends that good foods do not need any preservative at all.

Though defeated in this contention,
an official of the Department of Agriculture stated that it is not the intention of the government to remove Dr. Wiley. This official said the country has an exaggerated idea of Dr. Wiley's importance and accuracy of judgment, and that while this sentiment is so widespread no steps would be taken to remove the chief chemist, as such action at this time might tend to lessen public confidence in the pure food work of the department.

Yesterday in Judge Terrell's county court Attorneys Wimble, McKeel and Bolen were declared to be in contempt of court and cited to appear this morning before that tribunal. Lack of respect for the dignity of the court appeared to be the trouble.

This morning Attorneys McKeel and Bolen appeared and were assessed fines of $2.

County Attorney Wimble failed to appear. When seen this afternoon by the News he said he had paid no attention to the citation and knew nothing about what had been done in the matter this morning.

Miss Florence Furman.

Sweet Miss Florence Furman is nearing completion of her visit with her dear little lady friends, who were her playmates, before she went to Guthrie to live.

Last week she was principally the guest of her select little friend Miss Emma Thompson. This week she became the guest of the delightful little Kice ladies, Misses Corinne and Olive.

There have been parties and entertainments galore in Miss Florence's honor since her return home among the Ada folks of her acquaintance, all of whom love her for her sweetness and intelligence.

SENATOR RODDIE INITIATED INTO ORDER OF KANGAROOS

Full Decorations of the Nuptial Fraternity Conferred at the County Jail.

Last night Senator Roddie attended, as usual, the weekly meeting of Sunday school teachers of the Methodist church. The subject was the thirteenth chapter of I Corinthians, the chapter on "Love."

"Love is not easily provoked," read the class conductor. It was Senator Roddie's turn to recite. He did it like a man. He said he just couldn't live up to that part of the holy injunction. And here is why:

Yesterday afternoon Senator Roddie was passing through the jail yard in the rear of the court house. A prisoner called to him, "Oh, Mr. Roddie," and Mr. Roddie replied very kindly, "What is it?" "Please step here to the window, I want to speak to you," Mr. Roddie stepped to the window and as he did so was completely soured with all the water in the prisoners' drinking bucket. He was wet clear through, necktie and all. He was wined, and you know how a man feels when he is dressed up but wilted.

What Senator Roddie said is a part of the secrets of the Order of Kangaroos and so of course must not be revealed to the public.

However, he did go into the sheriff's office and explained to the sheriff and his deputy all about the case. The sheriff is no short hand expert and could not remember just all that the Senator did say, and the Senator is himself rather absent minded and he forgot too. So the eloquence of his remarks are lost to history.

But Mr. Roddie stated one proposition quite clearly, to the effect that if the sheriff would turn out the prisoner who threw the water (John Blocker who is in on a liquor charge) that he would sure even up with him right there and it would be the real thing and no kangaroo business about it. The sheriff said he couldn't just exactly see how he could turn the prisoner out but thought he could turn the Senator in and let them adjust the matter within the limits of the bars.

And the matter stands just that way now.

MUST NOT SELL LAND MORE THAN ONE TIME

Indians Who Have the Habit of Selling Their Lands Several Times Must Quit It.

Wetumka, Aug. 28.—The Oklahoma statutes provide that where a person sells or buys land, not being in possession thereof, while such land is in controversy by any suit in court, he is guilty of a misdemeanor.

John Harjo and William Buck, two Indians of the Wetumka neighborhood, were arrested for selling land more times than the law allows. This arrest and consequent trial, may be the starting point of litigation that will stir up lots of trouble in the eastern portion of the state. Similar offenders are numerous.

The information was issued on complaint of Attorney James A. Long of Wetumka, charging Harjo with selling lot one of section thirty, township 9 north, range 10 east to Buck, each of them knowing that the land was in litigation. The land is a part of the allotment of Buckner Stidham, deceased, but who left a will disposing of the land. The will has been filed for probate, but the same is being contested by several heirs who are excluded as beneficiaries.

This is the first arrest in this county for this offense since the adoption of the Oklahoma statutes by statehood.

LAST OF THE CHOCTAWS TO BE STORED TO ROLLS

Rolls Declared Forever Closed but More Will Seek Enrollment by Mandamus Proceedings.

Special to the News.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The Secretary of the Interior has ordered the restoration to the rolls of Martha and Georgia Hyden and William T. Swadley as citizens of intermarriage in the Choctaw Nation. It is understood that these persons are the last who will be restored under the Goldsby decision, handed down by the Supreme court of the United States last winter. The three persons named were represented by Kappler & Merrill and James K. Jones, of Washington, D. C., as their attorneys, and they convinced the department that their clients came really within the Goldsby decision.

The department has made a ruling refusing to restore to the rolls or to give any rights of allotment to any other parties. A large number of persons whose cases were in contest had decisions written in their favor ordering them placed upon the approved rolls. By the time the clerical work of inscribing their names on the rolls had been performed, however, the opinion of Attorney-General Bonaparte of February 19, 1907, was rendered, and when the rolls came before Secretary Hitchcock for his approval, he had changed his mind, and instead of stamping the rolls "Approved" and then cancelling their enrollment, he simply stamped the rolls "Disapproved." The Department holds that this last act constitutes a final judgment adverse to the applicants, and that there is no authority now for their restoration to the rolls.

It is understood that a number of additional mandamus suits will be brought in behalf of various persons who claim to be entitled to enrollment and allotment in the Five Civilized Tribes, and who have been waiting for the final decision of the department before taking action in court.

BOOTLEGGERS' COURT TERM TO BE HELD AT SHAWNEE

So Many Cases of Bootlegging that a Special Term of Court is Arranged to Try Them.

Shawnee, Ok., Aug. 28.—Hunter Johnson, assistant county Attorney of Pottawatomie county has secured what is termed a "bootleggers' term" of the county court, to begin a week from next Monday, at which several scores of bootlegging cases will be tried. If present plans are carried out court will open each morning at 8 o'clock and will continue through the day and night sessions part of the time. Most of the local bootleggers are already under bonds aggregating several thousand dollars. Many express their determination to leave the city as soon as their cases are disposed of and their bondsmen are released.

A new sensation was injected into these liquor violation cases when a warrant was issued by the county attorney for the local agent for the Santa Fe, the warrant charging violation of the prohibitory laws. In connection with the issuance of the warrant Attorney Johnson said:

"We have come to the conclusion that under the law those who aid and abet bootleggers are equally guilty with them and should be prosecuted accordingly. The railroad agents in their scramble for the liquor dealers' freight business are going to the extremes of storing the liquors in their freight houses to be delivered to the consignees as wanted. We are going to break up this practice if possible."

THE SHAWNEE LION IN WOLF'S CLOTHING

Dr. L. C. Wolf, the ministerial lion of Shawnee, presented a striking appearance last night as he stood before the vast audience at the tabernacle and warned the people of the real Hell fire which should be visited for ever and ever on the wicked.

Dr. Wolf is the pastor of the First Baptist church of Shawnee, and it is to him that the Shawnee press attributes the leadership in the late reclaiming of the forest city from the Devil and notorious criminality.

This man with the head of hair of the average Texas politician is one of the leading Baptist ministers of the state.

Chenish Brown Murder Case.
Pawhuska, Ok., Aug. 28.—As though he were relating the most commonplace story, Alvin P. Brown, 21 years old self-confessed murderer of his father, H. P. Brown, during the preliminary examination of his stepmother and Bert and Cora Brumfield recounted in a moderate tone and with a stoical countenance the details of the tragedy that took place near Fairfax the morning of April 31, 1909.

Young Brown, in his confession said that soon after midnight in their camp twelve miles from Fairfax, Mrs. Brown awoke Alvin, pointed to the boy's sleeping father and said: "Now kill him." Alvin seized an adz and sunk it into his father's skull. Then he and the woman threw the body into a brush heap and it was burned.

Alvin and Mrs. Brown had been on intimate terms for a year. She had promised to marry him if he would get rid of his father. He committed the crime and he told about it on the witness stand without a twitching of a nerve, a blush of the cheek or a swerving from a single detail, and under a most rigid cross-examination.

The hatred of Mrs. Brown for her husband was prominently brought out. "I'll give you $500 and a mule if you'll kill him," the boy said she told him one day, but he refused. But he was enamored of her, hypnotized by her, as it were, and when she promised to make him her husband, he was willing to do the foulest of deeds.

And the while Mrs. Nettie Brown sat beside her lawyer and before the witness and listened to the story with the utmost compunction. The court room was crowded with people who craned their necks to see her, but she was as cool as her lawyer, as heartless as the youth who mopped the perspiration from his brow and continued, hour after hour, his narration of the details of the tragedy.

Income Tax League.
New York, Aug. 28.—The promoters of the meeting to be held at Albany, Sept. 4, to further the adoption of a federal income tax law, are endeavoring to make it of national significance. The committee in charge announced that while William J. Bryan will not attend, he will send a letter and suggest a form of permanent organization.

It was said today that Mr. Bryan would suggest that the organization be called the Income Tax League of the state and that the movement be kept as non-partisan as possible.

Augustus Thomas, the playwright, probably will be elected president of the league. The committee expects that Senator Thomas P. Gore of Oklahoma will be present. William R. Hearst also has signified his purpose to attend.

Great Broom Corn Crop.
Lindsay, Aug. 28.—This community will probably lead the state as the broom corn center this year. The crop here is estimated at $150,000.

Reports from other parts of the state where broom corn has begun to be put on the market the price has been ranging from $60 to $80 per ton, while here the average is somewhat higher—$80 to $100, and in one instance $165. Farmers who are raising the corn this year say they are making good money out of the crop. Yesterday 400 bales were marketed here. One farmer had thirty tons of the brush that netted him $3,000.

The color of the broom corn raised here is as good as that of any other part of the United States, evidenced by the high price it brings.

AN ADDITIONAL TRAIN PROMISED BY KATY ROAD

PRESENT ONE-TRAIN-A-DAY SERVICE IS INADEQUATE—CORPORATION COMMISSION PETITIONED.
Prospect of Night Sleeper Train to Perfect Service from Dallas and Fort Worth to Oklahoma City.

There is a splendid prospect that there will soon be a second passenger train in operation on the Katy between Atoka and Oklahoma City. Division Superintendent Brown recently assured The News that an additional train would be put on.

The traffic on the one train now running is too heavy. In addition to this a new train would create new business and from the outset the service ought to be profitable.

The public demand for this additional train is such that the corporation commission is being appealed to in the following petition:

In as much as the M. K. & T. Railway company only operate one passenger train a day each way from Oklahoma City to Coalgate, which service is wholly inadequate to meet the needs of the traveling public, we, the undersigned citizens of Oklahoma City, Shawnee, Mand, Konawa, Ada, Centrahoma, Stonewall, Lehigh, Atoka and Coalgate, hereby respectfully petition your honorable board to require said M. K. & T. Ry. Co. to operate one more passenger train each way daily on this line, giving us two trains each way every twenty-four hours.

There is an interurban service between Atoka and Coalgate, a morning and evening train being run between these points in addition to the regular through train.

For a year past there has been a proposition under consideration by the Katy officials to run a through train at night connecting with the main line trains. This would be a sleeper train and would give an ideal service between Dallas and Fort Worth and Oklahoma City. Possibly the demand for an additional train may be met in this way. At any rate, the prospects for a better service is excellent.

Coal Lands Convention.
Coalgate, Aug. 28.—Those in charge of arrangements for the convention of the association for the sale of the segregated coal lands, which will be held in this city on Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 6th and 7th, have every assurance that the attendance will be large, representative and enthusiastic, and that something will be started at the convention that will bring good results at the coming session of congress.

McAlester, Krebs, Halleyville, Hartshorne, Wilburton, Poteau, Kiowa and other cities situated in the coal belt as well as a number of cities outside of it have promised to send large delegations. Governor C. N. Haskell, Hon. C. D. Carter and other members of congress and a number of prominent men from various parts of the state will be present. Invitations have been sent to Gov. McCurtain and Gov. Johnson and other prominent Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians, many of whom have already said they will attend this convention.

To Correct Oil Prices.
Washington, Aug. 28.—Dana H. Kelsey, superintendent of Union Indian agency, who was called here from Muskogee for that purpose, was in consultation with Acting Secretary Pierce of the interior department, relative to the price of oil in Oklahoma. The subject was under discussion for several hours.

The department officials are much concerned over the rapid reductions in the price of oil, because they cut down the royalties to the Indians, but so far they have been unable to devise any means of relief.

The department will go into the subject in detail and, if possible, will afford assistance to the nation's wards. The subject is regarded as of so much importance that considerable time will be required to reach a conclusion.

Apprehension is felt on account of the threat of the Standard Oil to buy crude oil from Mexico unless Oklahoma accept the reduction from forty-one cents to thirty-nine cents a barrel.

Corporation Commission Ratings.
Guthrie, August 28.—The Corporation Commission of the State of Oklahoma is probably clothed with more power than any similar commission of any state in the union.

The five orders that were signed up by the Commission yesterday as reported in these dispatches were all complaints against railroad companies and citations for contempt of different orders promulgated by the Corporation Commission. At least three of these orders deal with intricate questions involving the jurisdiction of the commission in which the railroad companies allege that being interstate shipments the Corporation Commission has no authority in the matter.

The orders of the commission involving these cases are entirely too long to print on account of the numerous citations of authorities. Should any of these orders be appealed to the courts the result will be watched for with great interest.

HIS DIGNITY HURT

SERVANT OF THE GOVERNMENT MOST RUDELY USED.

But Then, as He Explained, Such Incidents Were One of the Penalties of Occupying an Elevated Position.

In the postoffice Simon Muldraugh, postmaster, was opening the daily mail sack. The train that had brought it had haughtily declined to stop or even slacken speed at a town so small, and those at the depot saw the mail clerk disdainfully kick the limp gray pouch out the door as the train whizzed past.

Now the crowd had followed Jimmy Miller, the assistant station agent, to the little postoffice, and was waiting to see if by any chance a letter or card or circular had come.

"Anything for me, Simon?" inquired old man Davis from the Buck Creek region, thrusting his whiskered face into the little window.

The postmaster looked at him coldly, as befitted a government servant engaged in an important duty, and made no reply. The crowd laughed and old man Davis became red under his tobacco-stained whiskers.

"Huh," he said, "jest because some people kin hand out half a dozen letters a day they think they're something." He turned to the window again.

"Lookye here, you little bald-headed runt," he said. "You gimme my mail, if there's any. I'm in a hurry." The postmaster swelled visibly. Such talk to an employee of the government was unbearable.

"Do you know who you're talkin' to?" he demanded, thrusting his face into the window from within. "When I get ready I'll—"

Then it was that the people assembled saw an astounding and awful thing. A plain farmer from up Buck creek had the postmaster by the back of his neck and was pulling him through the window.

Getting him outside he shook him as though he were a sack from which it was desired to shake the bran.

"You measley little, no-count, fat-headed whippersnapper," he roared, pouncing him up and down. "Last winter your family was starvin' because you were too blasted lazy to work, and I fed 'em. Now you sit up here and act funny with me. Next thing like that I see I'll duck you in the home trough. Git!" He threw the postmaster into his partitioned corner and stalked out.

The postmaster straightened his collar, brushed his breeches and ran a curved finger across his moist forehead.

"That," he said to the silent crowd, "that was the penalty of greatness." —Galveston News.
